Five Elements

Since ancient times, the Chinese have recognised that life is composed of five essential elements:

Fire, Earth, Metal, Wood, Water.

These elements interact to influence all things in the world, bringing movement, balance and prosperity.

Today, this philosophy has been combined with the practice of fragrance infusion, bringing harmony into your life.

Fire

Sweet notes of plum & mandarin, the sharpness of verbena and a spicy base of cedar & myrrh.

火

A person with a balance of fire is wise, reasonable, moral and polite.

Earth

Floral notes of violet, rose & jasmine are balanced by earthy cinnamon, vanilla, orris & white musk.

土

A person with a balance of earth is honest, faithful, dependable and helpful.

Metal

Fruity notes of melon & papaya are strengthened by amber, oakmoss & green tea.

金

A person with a balance of metal is meticulous, careful, honourable and precise.

Wood

Heady frangipani blossoms entwined with oakmoss and rich musk, sandalwood and patchouli.

木

A person with a balance of wood is loyal, forgiving, generous and diplomatic.

Water

Classic honeysuckle, jasmine and magnolia blooms sweetened with vanilla bean and teffee.

水

A person with a balance of water is influential, insightful, clear minded and flexible.
