

SKIN SALVATION, PLANET PROTECTION

Dindi Naturals provides Australians with an Australian Made, all-natural, high quality, alternative to synthetic soaps and skin care products.

Soaps, skin care and household products made with toxic or synthetic chemicals can sometimes cause skin problems when absorbed into the skin. That's what was happening to Pip Guyatt and her son – the products in her house were leaving her with dry skin and causing her son to break out in eczema.

Pip started making her own homemade skin care products from local Australian-grown fruit, nut and flower oils, milks and essential oils; before long, her family's skin problems had disappeared and friends and local retailers were placing orders themselves – Dindi Naturals was born.

“We couldn't believe that natural soap could make such a dramatic impact on overall skin health,” Pip said.

“We're lucky because there are so many essential oils with healing properties that can be found here in Australia.

“We try and use as much Australian-grown produce as we can, because it's important to us that we be sustainable and support Australian farmers and manufacturers – it's a part of who we are as a brand and who I am as a person,” she added.

Many people embrace Dindi Naturals because they share the same beliefs and appreciation for locally made and grown products.

It therefore made sense for Dindi Naturals to use the Australian Made logo to help communicate that sentiment and quickly and easily highlight the associated benefits to consumers.

“It's important that our labelling highlights the fact that our products are Australian,” Pip said.

The Australian Made logo is a recognised symbol for high quality, Australian-made products.

Many of Dindi Naturals' products feature the name of the native plant they are derived from alongside the logo, to drive the message home.

“People love the Australian influence.”

Dindi Naturals can be purchased from select retailers and online from www.dindinaturals.com.au.
