Queensland takes out the national Australian Made Foundation Cup

The Queensland boys and girls teams have won the national Australian Made Foundation Cup after a series of playoffs that took place at the West Lakes Tennis Club in South Australia.

The awards were presented at the World Tennis Challenge, held at Memorial Drive, by Australian Made Campaign Chief Executive Ian Harrison and tennis great Judy Dalton.

The winning teams:

Boys

- Haru Sonton, Pacific Pines
- Alec Braund, Maryborough
- Jonathon Cha, Parkwood
- Jake Hull, Mount Sheridan

Girls

- Amelija Swaffer-Selff, Moura
- Susie Lee, Southport
- Rio Tanabe, Mudgeeraba
- Kristen Cavanna, Pelican Waters

The best and fairest awards also both went to Queensland, with Haru Sonton receiving the John Fitzgerald medal and Susie Lee receiving the Judy Dalton medal.

Haru and Susie also received a $1000 cheque, presented by the Australian Made Campaign and the Fed Cup Foundation, to assist with their tennis development.

The Australian Made Foundation Cup gives children 13 and under from across rural and regional Australia the opportunity to participate in competitive tennis at the highest level.

The tournament forms part of the Australian Made Summer of Tennis, an initiative of the Fed Cup Foundation and the Australian Made Campaign.

“The Australian Made Summer of Tennis celebrates local talent – and Australia has a lot to be proud of,” Australian Made Campaign Chief Executive, Ian Harrison, said.

“We produce some of the best quality products in the world, and our home-grown athletes are no exception.”

ABOUT THE AUSTRALIAN MADE, AUSTRALIAN GROWN LOGO

The green-and-gold Australian Made, Australian Grown (AMAG) logo is the only registered country-of-origin certification trade mark for the full range of genuine Australian products and produce.

It has been helping Australian consumers, farmers, processors and manufacturers for thirty years.

The AMAG logo can only be used on products that are registered with the not-for-profit organisation Australian Made Campaign Limited. The strict set of rules governing the logo's use also require that it must always be used with one of five descriptors; 'Australian Made', 'Australian Grown', 'Product of Australia', 'Australian Seafood' or 'Australian' (for export use only). To use the logo goods must meet the criteria set out in Australian Consumer Law as well the more stringent Australian Made, Australian Grown Logo Code of Practice. More than 2600 businesses are registered to use the AMAG logo, which can be found on some 20,000 products sold here and around the world.

Australian Made Campaign Limited is located at Suite 105, 161 Park Street, South Melbourne, VIC 3205.
