STORIES from our Happy Customers

Planet Protector has enabled us to add value to our communities and minimise our impact on the Planet

Blackmores, Australia's leading natural health company has embedded sustainability right across the business to give back to the communities.

"Adopting WOOLPACK has propelled Blackmores closer to its sustainability targets, with a 22% increase in waste diversion, a 40% decrease in emissions from our 2020 Baseline...and our customers love it!!"

The RCPA's Mission: Find Packaging that support ESG

The Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia is the leading organisation of Pathologists and Senior Scientists in Australasia. "Whilst we had used Styrofoam boxes in the past, we recognised that this was harming our Environmental Social and Governance (ESG) targets to become carbon neutral by 2050.

With a crammed warehouse, excessive costs and a big carbon footprint, we needed to change. We identified Planet Protector as a values aligned company with a scientifically proven solution. WOOLPACK didn't disappoint. It lowered the company's carbon footprint by 66% and saved 80% of warehouse storage space compared to Styrofoam."

American multinational Pharma Company reduces spoilage with Woolpack

Transitioning from foil bubble wrap to WOOLPACK has significantly improved Baxter's transportation of temperature sensitive goods.

"WOOLPACK has enabled us to not only reduce spoilage of life savings drugs and cut down our costs but also exemplify our dedication to corporate responsibility. In 2022 Baxter, reduced Scope 1 and 2 greenhouse gas emissions by 1.7% and this is just the beginning!"
