Think tables and storage.
Think OfficePace.

Make the best use of your workspace. Our wide selection of table and storage options add style, functionality and flexibility to every office.

Tables to suit
every workspace

Whether you're after a welcoming coffee table for a reception space, a professional boardroom table or a versatile meeting room table, you'll find the perfect choice that's just right. We offer an extensive range of occasional, conference, training and collaborative workspace tables, designed to offer flexible and functional options. Many of our tables can be used in endless configurations and can be adapted to suit any space, from training rooms to break-out areas. No matter the size or shape of the office space, you're sure to find just the right fit.

As well as being stylish, our office tables are highly practical and versatile – they combine impressive looks with adjustable legs and feet, and quality finishes. You can also choose from a range of shapes, colours, and sizes, to best match the office décor and style. We also manufacture many of our tables in Australia, so have total control over the production process and can guarantee short lead times.

Practical and efficient storage options

When it comes to storage, every office needs practical and efficient options. Research shows that a clean and uncluttered space boosts productivity and focus, so we've got every storage solution covered. Our extensive range includes personal storage, filing cabinets, lockers and bookcases. And, with a trusted network of Australian and international suppliers, we can configure or customise a storage solution to suit any workplace need.

Steadfast service and decades of expertise

At OfficePace, our range of tables and storage solutions will help you create a standout space that inspires people and productivity. What's more, our business is founded on a proven track record and decades of expertise. We're big enough to handle huge projects, but small enough to inject agility – with the unwavering personal service of a third-generation family business.
