From Our Family Heritage to Yours — Since 1939

Before Beatanicals was a business, it was simply a mum wanting better. When our son Cooper was born, he had sensitive skin and struggled with a dry skin condition that needed gentle, safe care.

I searched the shelves for something I felt truly confident using...and couldn't find it. So I created it.

With three generations of family beekeeping heritage dating back to 1939, I was inspired by the healing properties of beeswax and Active Manuka Honey from the Grampians, and created what would become Bee-Soothed Balm.

What began as relief for one little boy became something much bigger. A brand built on love. On legacy. On kindness.

On creating natural, low-tox products I would confidently use on my own family.

Today, Beatanicals blends traditional bee wisdom with Australian botanicals, flower essences and innovative cruelty free bee-venom to create natural wellness solutions for the whole family.

Every product still begins with that same intention.

With kindness,

A comforting blend created to relieve tired muscles and soften tension, leaving the body feeling restored, relaxed and renewed.

"I highly recommend Bee-Eazed Balm. I use it every day. I experience stiffness through my hands & joints. I rub into my knuckles and wrists when I wake up as my fingers are all buckled and stiff. Marvelous on my hands, and I can move my fingers more freely. The best I have tried and I have tried everything."
